Our Cover

Even as spring approaches and we're looking forward to sunnier skies and outdoor activities, QST is looking back at autumn — specifically, the 2021 September VHF Contest, where Peter Vizey, AF7GL, operated from this setup on Crystal Mountain in Pierce County, Washington, at 6,998 feet above sea level. He earned a first-place finish in the Northwestern Division and fifth place WVE in the Single Operator, Portable category. Get the overview of the contest's results in this issue, and the full results online at <http://contests.arrl.org>. [Peter Vizey, AF7GL, photo]
